Dear resident,

Please find attached a membership invitation from the Friends of the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne.

We are a vibrant, not for profit membership-based organisation for people who love the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne and plants and who want to support conservation, restoration and scientific research at the Gardens and the National Herbarium of Victoria.

Activities organised by the Friends are designed to draw people to the Gardens in every season of the year and range from walks and rambles, talks and workshops presented by both Friends and renowned experts in the field. Regular events include art classes, exhibitions, plant sales and craft groups.

Money raised by the Friends, and donated through the Trust Fund, supports preservation of collections, restoration of historic elements, development of new areas and initiatives and research through scholarships.

To join the Friends, please post the form to the Office or drop it into us. Alternative, you can join online at www.rbgfriendsmelbourne.org/join-us/.
